The Abbey Apartments is permanent supportive housing for homeless men and women. Providing 113 apartments and onsite integrated treatment and services, the Abbey Apartments provides the opportunity to replace life on the street with a home of one's own and a supportive community.

The Abbey Apartments were developed, and are owned and operated, by Skid Row Housing Trust. The Abbey was designed by Koning Eizenberg Architecture and built by Westport Construction, Inc. The Abbey was made possible by the generous support of: Astani Enterprises, Inc., Citibank, the City of Los Angeles Housing Department, Corporation for Supportive Housing, Enterprise Community Investment, Inc., the Federal Home Loan Bank, the Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles, the Housing Authority of the County of Los Angeles, IDS Real Estate, the Los Angeles County Housing and Homelessness Prevention Fund, the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health, the Low Income Investment Fund, the State of California Housing and Community Development Department and Skid Row Housing Trust.
